Sherri McDonald has been making face masks available to anyone in need. 3. Luke – Pacific County mobile testing in North County will be moved from every Friday to every Wednesday, 9am – 5pm. Please call the EOC to make an appointment in North or South County 4. TAC: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> a. TAC just launched a 10-week social media campaign to engage parents and community members, asking them to identify their strengths during these times. There will be prizes every week – simply like, share or comment on their daily Facebook and Instagram posts! b. Next week is Spirit Week! Watch out for posts! c. After Prom Party planning has been placed on hold. However, they hope to put something together for the students and community this summer if the “stay home, stay healthy” mandate has been lifted. d. Guiding Good Choices parenting class is this May! Join Lyndsey every Wednesday for 4 weeks beginning May 6th. This class will be held virtually from 5:30-7pm. e. #whathelpsus is a Sources of Strength national campaign to identify what helps us during these times. TAC is asking for volunteers to put together a short snippet (or even a picture with a sign) of what helps them. These will be compiled into a single video to show what our community is doing during this time. 5. FRC's: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> a. Raymond: Liliana is translating packets and has been instrumental in the Latino support page through the Raymond School District. b. Nikki: helping deliver Valley's breakfast and lunches, which are being delivered to everyone's houses. She has also been helping deliver food at the food banks. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> i. Nikki has also continued doing the “after school art program” for the kids who used art as an outlet. She has used the supplies donated by TAC to deliver art supplies to these youth's homes. c. Kat: Working with the backpack program through First Luther Church, in which 38 backpacks are delivered every Friday. She is also working on getting tangibles for students such as toilet paper, toothbrushes, microwaves, etc. Additionally, she has been working with Bethany Barnard and The Elks to deliver hot meals + diapers/formula/etc for infants. 	Email Denise your #whathelpsus video or picture: pacificcountytac@gmail.com Allison and Alyssa will work together to see how R2R can help pay for Only 7 Seconds' words of affirmation cards.

Share-out: Pacific County Health Improvement Plan	Sherri McDonald presented the newly revised Pacific County Community Health Improvement Plan. A community health improvement plan is a long-term, systematic effort to address public health problems on the basis of the results of community health assessment activities and the community health improvement process. This plan is used by community agencies, in collaboration with community partners, to set priorities and coordinate and target resources. This plan was developed through a collaborative process and will help to improve the health of people across Pacific County.	See the PowerPoint here . For questions, please contact Sherri at sherrimcd1@hughes.net
Share-out: South Bend Community Survey Results	Allison did a presentation comparing 2017, 2018 and 2019 South Bend Community Survey results	See presentation here . For questions, contact Allison O’Rourke at agraves@co.pacific.wa.us
